

International House

Consent for Resident to Enter, Pack and Store In-Room

Due to the current state of emergency, International House will allow current residents that are absent from International House to store their personal belongings until their return.

The absent resident is authorizing another resident presently at International House to pack and label their belongings in suitcases or boxes only.

With the completion of this form, the resident understands that their belongings must be packed and labeled in suitcases or boxes only. They also understand that only the designated resident will have access to their room at a designated date and time.
