

International House

Consent for Authorized Person to Enter, Pack and Remove

Due to the current state of emergency, International House will allow current resident members that are absent from International House to authorize another person to pack and remove their belongings from the premises. Only ONE individual is allowed to enter and remove belongings on the absent resident's behalf.

With the completion of this form, the resident understands that their belongings must be packed and removed from International House. They also understand that only the designated individual will have access to their room at a designated date and time. All persons entering the building will observe proper Personal Protection Equipment protocol with the use of masks and gloves. (No exceptions)
